

Globalization Spiritual Growth Power Control Perfect Storm Financial Guru Randolph Buss

Randolph Buss,
One Radio Networks European connection to the financial world analyzes his domain from a true holistic perspective. Many are saying that things are not good, yet like our own Andrew Gause, Mr. Buss lays out a clean picture of why and how.

Listen in and hear how the European landscape is being played out in the world of high finance and unemployment and its relationship to the U.S. and the once "almighty" dollar. How is the Euro being played during all this? What is the hedge fund and derivative market in Europe?

Mr. Bus
s makes a sparkling argument how personal growth, self actualization, rampant in the U.S. is facilitating the old paradigm the bankers are playing today, simply not workable and doomed to failure.

Fascinating!
